

DON L. MEREDITH
LIBRARIAN
HARDING GRADUATE SCHOOL OF RELIGION

Education

Harding College, B.A. in biblical languages, 1964 (Cum laude)
Harding Graduate School of Religion, M.Th., 1967
University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, M.S. in L.S., 1968.

Job Experience

Assistant Librarian, Sept. 1968-Aug. 1970
Associate Librarian, Sept. 1970-Aug. 1983
Head Librarian, Aug. 1983-
During the last 20 years one of my principal duties has been collection Development, with a special interest in collection materials relating to the churches of Christ and the American Restoration Movement.

Professional Activities

American Theological Library Association
Member since 1968.
Except for 3 years have attended national meeting annually.

Tennessee Theological Library Association
Member since 1975.
Have served on committees and in all officer positions.

Memphis Area Library Council
Member for over 30 years.
Served on several committees and as Chairman, Secretary, and Treasurer.

Christian College Librarians
Charter member (1974) of this organization composed of librarians from educational institutions related to the churches of Christ.
Served as indexer for the Restoration Serials Index since 1975 and on the periodical selection committee for this index, 1983-86.
Member of Board of Restoration Serials Index, 1984-86.
Chaired session on "Bibliographic access to Church of Christ materials" at May 1992 meeting. Presentation on "Religious and Theological Internet Resources," May 2005.

Awards

Distinguished Service Award, Harding University, 1982.
Alumnus of the Year Award, HUGSR, 1998.

Publications

Biography of and bibliography of works of Dr. Harold Hazelip in Theology

Matters: Answers for the Church Today. Joplin, MO: College Press, 1998.

Edited Union List of Restoration Periodicals in Christian College Libraries, 3d ed. 1996.

Article on W. N. Short, who was first missionary from the churches of Christ to Rhodesia, in the Encyclopedia of the Stone-Campbell Movement, 2004.

Working on a project to identify the periodicals associated with the churches of Christ that have been published throughout its history with the intent of publishing a book indicating place of publication, editors, years published, and theological perspective.