

PREACHING
Bibliography

R.R.016.3022/S721. Soukup, Paul A., comp. Christian Communication: A Bibliographical Survey. New York: Greenwood Press, 1989.

"In this volume Christian communication refers to any communication used by the Christian churches and to a quality or style of communication consistent with Christian ethics and practices." Homiletics is not treated, but other areas of communication in which the minister will be involved are. In chapter one the author provides a brief outline of the history and issues of Christian communication and a summary of the various approaches to the study. Chapters 2-9 contain 1311 annotated entries of books, articles, and dissertations under the following general headings: resources, communication theory, history, rhetoric, interpersonal communication, mass communication, intercultural communication, and other media (art, drama, dance, music, sound media, comic books, computers, video & new media). Contains author, title, and subject indexes.

R.R.001.51/I61. International Encyclopedia of Communications, 4v. New York: Oxford University Press, 1989.

Contains 550 signed articles covering all aspects of communication. "Describes the various vehicles by which humans communicate; contains articles on alphabets, writing, speech, nonverbal language, and other diverse communication throughout the world; and discusses the links between communications and a host of other disciplines, including anthropology, art, education, history, journalism, law, linguistics, literature, mathematics, philosophy, political science, psychology, religion, science & technology, and sociology."

R.R.251.003/C744. Willimon, William H., and Richard Lischer. Concise Encyclopedia of Preaching. Louisville, KY: Westminster John Knox Press, 1995.

Signed articles by nearly 200 contributors. Contains "three types of entries: (1) historical, critical, and theological essays on a wide variety of topics related to preaching; (2) practical directions for the production and delivery of sermons related to preaching; and (3) biographical studies of individuals whose work has deeply influenced the church and its proclamation." Includes bibliographies.

R.R.269.2603/M528. Melton, J. Gordon, Phillip Charles Lucas, and Jon R. Stone. Prime-Time Religion: An Encyclopedia of Religious Broadcasting. Phoenix, AZ: Oryx Press, 1997.

Contains 396 entries primarily on religious broadcasting in America since 1921. Also includes articles on major international and foreign-based personalities and ministries and Islamic broadcasting. Limited coverage to "personalities of historical importance, shows and ministries that have more than local impact, ministries that are exemplary of some important facet or dimensions of religious broadcasting ministries, and shows & ministries that have had success over a period of years." Articles contain bibliographies and one of the appendices is a select bibliography of sources for further research.

R.R.016.251/T668r. Recent Homiletical Thought: A Bibliography. Nashville: Abingdon Press, 1967-83.

Vol. 1: 1935-65; Vol. 2: 1966-79.

A classified bibliography of materials on preaching divided into three sections: books, articles, theses & dissertations. Both volumes have an author index. Vol. 2 has an index of personal subjects.

R.R.016.251/A179. Achtemeier, Elizabeth, and Martha Aycock. Bibliography on Preaching, 1975-1985. Richmond, VA: Union Theological Seminary in Virginia, 1986.

Includes books, periodical articles, and essays categorized under 15 general headings. Also contains separate list of theses and dissertations dealing with homiletics. No author or specific subject indexes.

R.R.016.00154/I38/1992. Matlon, Ronald J., ed. Index to Journals in Communication Studies Through 1990. 2v. Annandale, VA: Speech Communication Association, 1992.

Contains table of contents of the following journals: Quarterly Journal of Public Speaking (1915-17), Quarterly Journal of Speech Education (1918-26), Quarterly Journal of Speech (1927-90), Speech Monographs (1934-75), Communication Monographs (1975-90), Speech Teacher (1952-76), Communication Education (1977-90), Critical Studies in Mass Communication (1984-90), Southern Speech Bulletin (1935-42), Southern Speech Journal (1942-71), Southern Speech Communication Journal (1971-87), Southern Communication Journal (1987-90), Western Speech (1937-74), Western Speech Communication (1975-77), Western Journal of Speech Communication (1977-90), Central States Speech Journal (1949-85), Communication Studies (1986-90), Today's Speech (1953-74), Communication Quarterly (1975-90), Bulletin of the Assn. of Departments and Administrators in Speech Communication (1972-75), Assn. for Communication Administration Bulletin (1975-90), Philosophy and Rhetoric (1968-90), Journal of Communication (1951-90), Human Communication Research (1974-90), Journalism Quarterly (1924-90), Journal of Broadcasting (1956-84), Journal of Broadcasting and Electronic Media (1985-90), Journal of the American Forensic Assn. (1964-88), Argumentation and Advocacy (1988-90), Literature Performance (1980-88), Text & Performance Quarterly (1989-90), Communication Research (1974-90), Journal of Applied Communications Research (1973-80), Journal of Applied Communication Research (1980-90), Bulletin: Women's Studies in Communication (1977-79), and Women's Studies in Communication (1981-90). Includes subject and author indexes.

252.008/F216. Fant, Clyde E., and William M. Pinson, Jr. 20 Centuries of Great Preaching, 13v. Waco, TX: Word Books, 1971.

Over 90 preachers and their sermons are included. Covers the first century to the present. Indexes in v. 13 by subject, Scripture, person, sermon titles, homiletics, illustrations, and alphabetical listing of preachers.

252/B561. Cox, James W., ed. Best Sermons, San Francisco: HarperSanFrancisco, 1988- . An annual published by Harper & Row. Each volume contains 52 sermons. Approximately one half of these are commissioned by the editor from well-known preachers. The others are the result of an annual competition in which preachers from around the world submit their best effort for the year. About 8 to 10 sermons are included under each of the following categories: evangelistic, expository, doctrinal/ theological, ethical, pastoral, and devotional. Each volume contains an index of scriptural texts. Among the contributing editors are David G. Buttrick, Fred B. Craddock, Carl F. H. Henry, David Allan Hubbard, John Killinger, Lloyd J. Ogilvie, David H. C. Read, and William H. Willimon.

252/L697. Klingsporn, Gary W., ed. The Library of Distinctive Sermons. Sisters, OR: Questar Publishers, 1996- .

Each volume contains 20 sermons by contemporary American preachers. Each sermon is followed by a comment section containing reflections on what made the sermon distinctive and effective. These comments deal with the use of biblical texts, the problem addressed, the nature of the proclamation, the response required, and suggestions for thought of discussion.

Warrack Lectures on Preaching. St. Andrews, Edinburgh and Lyman Beecher Lectures on Preaching. Yale University (Both listed in catalog under name of series.)

Scripture Index. Last drawers in the Card Catalog. Indexes by Scripture sermons from a selected list of books and journals.

PER.251/H767. Homiletic. 1975- .

A semiannual publication surveying theological and communication literature from the perspective of the minister. In addition to reviews of recent publications, also contains review articles relevant to a particular field of study.

R.R.016.2/R432. Research in Ministry. 1981- .

An annual subject and author index to D.Min. projects and theses. An abstract of the thesis is included with the author entry. The 1998 volume was the last to be published in print form. The electronic version of this database which contains all material in the printed volumes and is updated quarterly (Feb. 15, May 15, Aug. 15 & Nov. 15) to include submissions to date, can be searched through RIM Online at http://rim.atla.com/star/rimonline\_login.htm. It is searchable by keyword, author, title, thesis/project advisor, school, and ATLA Thesaurus subject headings.